Practicum

- If you were a part of a group on Wednesday, reform that group for today's practicum.
- Otherwise (with the exception of those at home) individuals should combine together to form groups of three or four.
- Each group should select the project they wish to work on.
- Select a facilitator, the individual whose project you are working on.
- Using the results of Wednesday's practicum and the cards, for the last known state of the project, setup to play the Objective Go game.
- Follow the game rules, and work through an entire round of the game.
- If you have questions, feel free to ask.
